

Jeremy Boudreaux

jeremy@thetridentapproach.com

Jeremy Boudreaux is a 21-year veteran of the U.S. Navy. His career began in Virginia Beach, VA as a tactical signals collector. He most recently served as Lead Training Manager for a multitude of advanced technical courses ranging from fundamental to advanced level; taught globally across 10 training locations using state-of-the-art technology and methodology. As a Master Training Specialist, he utilized a strong synthesis of strategic analysis, operational management, written and oral communication, and personnel training and development to manage multi-million-dollar curriculum development projects serving more than 3,000 multi-cultural personnel annually.

As an elite Naval Special Warfare Operator, Jeremy deployed three times to both Iraq and Afghanistan in arduous, tactical leadership roles conducting more than 120 ground-combat missions and 150 intelligence collection missions. His innovative strategies led multiple teams of highly-trained and combat-effective personnel employing state-of-the-art technologies in finding and capturing hundreds of enemy insurgents and the disruption of enemy strongholds.

He also deployed six times to various countries in dynamic leadership roles supporting joint military operations as a tactical signals collections operator. Jeremy conducted more than 230 intelligence gathering operations consisting of Maritime Interdiction Operations, Non-Compliant Maritime Boardings, Non-Combatant Evacuation Operations, Humanitarian Assistance, and Anti-Piracy Operations. He also served at the Joint Intelligence Staff in Europe managing intelligence collection, analysis, and dissemination across multiple partner nations enhancing regional security and multi-national counter-terrorism strategic operations.

Jeremy's military accolades include the Meritorious Service Medal, the Joint Service Commendation Medal, three Navy Commendation Medals (with Combat Valor), an Army Commendation Medal, a Joint Service Achievement Medal, four Navy Achievement Medals, the Combat Action Ribbon, and numerous other military campaign and personal awards.

